United Way of Burlington & Greater Hamilton is delighted to partner with Assante Wealth Management for its 18th Annual Golf Classic.

Other than the federal and provincial governments, United Way is the largest funder of health and social services in Burlington and Hamilton. In 2009, United Way supported more than 134 programs and services at 72 agencies. It has the size and strategic focus to distribute your donation effectively and efficiently. Nearly 1 in 3 people in our two communities use a United Way funded service.

Through strong partnerships United Way finds real solutions for today's toughest community issues. We work with other community groups to identify and research current and emerging needs. With the generosity of our donors, both individually and corporately, United Way has invested $46.7 million in much needed health and social support programs in Burlington and Hamilton.
