

Ballroom dancers and Big Bands are raising money for United Way

Nov 13, 2009

An energetic evening of Big Band music featuring Highland and Parkside Secondary School bands, takes place, Saturday, Nov. 21, 7-9 p. m. at Dundas Lions Memorial Community Centre, 10 Market St. S.

Presented by Dundas Community Services in support of United Way of Burlington and Greater Hamilton, the evening will feature many popular melodies and old standards from the '40s, such as String of Pearls, Chattanooga Choo-Choo, Blues Machine and Girl from Impanema.

Award-winning student dancers from The Studio at The Burlington Social Club will demonstrate ballroom dance techniques, including the jive, and get the audience up on their feet.

Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for seniors and students and are available by calling or visiting DCS, 905-627-5461, or from Highland and Parkside band members who are striving to win a Long and McQuade Music gift certificate for selling the most tickets. Dessert and coffee will be available for sale.

The United Way of Burlington and Greater Hamilton provides funding and other support to programs operating within local agencies.

With more than 80 years experience, they help our communities lead healthier lives, build safer homes and neighbourhoods, become self sufficient and give children and youth opportunities for a brighter tomorrow.
